

105TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1063

To amend the Webb-Kenyon Act to allow any State, territory, or possession of the United States to bring an action in Federal court to enjoin violations of that Act or to enforce the laws of such State, territory, or possession with respect to such violations.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 13, 1997

Mr. EHRLICH introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend the Webb-Kenyon Act to allow any State, territory, or possession of the United States to bring an action in Federal court to enjoin violations of that Act or to enforce the laws of such State, territory, or possession with respect to such violations.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That the Act of March 1, 1913 (commonly referred to as
4 the “Webb-Kenyon Act”), and section 202(b) of the Liq-
5 uor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act (27 U.S.C. 122)
6 are amended by adding at the end the following: “Any 7 State, the District of Columbia, any territory of the

1 United States, or any place noncontiguous to but subject
2 to the jurisdiction of the United States may bring an ac-
3 tion in the appropriate United States district court, or in
4 the case of a territory or place outside the United States,
5 in an appropriate court of Federal jurisdiction, to enjoin
6 the shipment or transportation of liquor in violation of this
7 section or to enforce the laws of such State, the District
8 of Columbia, such territory, or such place, as the case may 9 be, with respect to such shipment or transportation.”.
